

At Indigo Real Estate, we attribute much of our properties' successes to the strengths of our team members and we are seeking an experienced Community Director for a 149 unit LIHTC property located in Makakilo, Oahu, Hawaii, who is passionate about customer service, affordable housing, and is driven to succeed. We are looking for a highly organized, energetic, self-starter who enjoys a fast-paced work environment and takes ownership in all aspects of their work. The successful candidate will possess outstanding customer service and sales talents, multitasking and problem-solving skills, and the ability to react with appropriate levels of discretion and urgency to situations or events that require quick response and superb communication. This candidate will be passionate about providing exceptional service and hospitality to consistently exceed customer expectations, finding great satisfaction in helping to create a sense of community. They will also demonstrate a strong sense of initiative, a collaborative work style, and a strong work ethic, taking pride in accurate data entry, accounting, compliance standards, reporting, and professional work products. This position may require weekend and holiday work. For a full job description, please visit our careers page.
