

Emergency Broadband Benefit Program

THE FCC'S PLAN TO CONNECT ALL
AMERICANS TO THE INTERNET

"No one should have to choose between paying their Internet bill or paying to put food on the table."

- Jessica Rosenworcel, Acting Chairwoman

Bringing affordable Internet service to eligible households for distance working, virtual learning, and critical telehealth care by providing:

- A discount of up to $50 per month for Internet service (and up to $75 per month for households on Tribal lands)
- A one-time discount up to $100 from participating providers for a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet by contributing $10 to $50 towards the purchase

Qualifiers:

- FCC's Lifeline program
- SNAP Lunch program
- Loss of income (tax filings between $99K to $198K this past year)
- Federal Pell Grant awardee
- Receive Government support (Unemployment, Medicaid, etc.)

Requires the participation of Internet providers to bring service

FCC'S EMERGENCY BROADBAND BENEFIT PROGRAM

CONVERGED SERVICES
TECHNOLOGY ADVISORS

25 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE
MEMBERS OF NAHMA

01

Negotiate with Internet providers to integrate this program into their bulk offering and options (Charter, Comcast, AT&T, Verizon, Hotwire, and more) for additional benefits

02

Ensure connectivity is available to all NAHMA members

Promote program through all available channels and clients

NAHMA BRIDGING THE DIGITAL DIVIDE

01

Curate a partnership among members to raise awareness of program

02

Introduce program and participating providers to affordable housing members

"With the help of the Emergency Broadband Benefit, we have a new way for households to access virtual learning, for patients to connect to telehealth providers, and for those struggling in this pandemic to learn new online skills and seek their next job."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Contact us to guide you in the right direction

info@convergedservicesinc.com

954.767.0185

www.convergedservicesinc.com

Click here for more information

