

2025 Year in Review

A year of resilience, growth, and unwavering commitment to Washington's affordable housing community

A Year Defined by Strength and Stability

2025 was a remarkable year for AHMA of Washington, marked by exceptional consistency in membership growth, high-impact education, and sound financial stewardship. While the industry faced headwinds with lower training and convention attendance nationwide, we remained steadfast in our mission.

Our strategic approach allowed us to not just weather challenges, but to thrive—adapting programs, innovating solutions, and strengthening our position as the trusted leader for affordable housing professionals across Washington State.

Fresh voices joining our community

Our exceptional 90% renewal rate demonstrates the deep value AHMA provides to Washington's affordable housing sector. With 104 renewals and 12 new members joining in 2025, we've built a stable, engaged community of 116 organizations. While 9 companies didn't renew—several due to mergers with existing members—our retention numbers speak volumes about member satisfaction and the relevance of our programs.

Introducing the AHMA Industry Directory

Silver Level

Essential visibility for vendor partners entering the affordable housing marketplace

Gold Level

Enhanced exposure with premium placement in member resources

Diamond Level

Maximum visibility connecting top-tier partners with our entire membership base

Evolved from our Associate Member Program, the new AHMA Industry Directory represents a strategic transformation. This three-tiered structure increases visibility for vendor partners while providing members with streamlined access to trusted, vetted industry resources. It's a win-win that strengthens connections across the affordable housing ecosystem.

Puget Sound Energy

Pioneering 150 Years of Affordable and Sustainable Housing Solutions for Washington Communities

This company operates within the affordable housing industry, with a focus on integrating sustainable and accessible energy solutions to enhance community living. It emphasizes equipping multifamily properties with electric vehicle charging infrastructure, thereby facilitating the transition to environmentally friendly transportation options among its residents. The company's initiatives aim to mitigate the financial burden of energy consumption for families by providing cost-effective charging facilities. These programs highlight its commitment to accommodating the growing demand for electric vehicle support in residential settings, ensuring that low-income and vulnerable populations also benefit from these advancements.

Education Tracks

Targeted content addressing diverse member needs

Held in April, our Annual Convention showcased the strength of our community. Guided by member feedback, we introduced five specialized educational tracks featuring expert speakers delivering relevant, practical, and forward-thinking content. Despite slightly reduced attendance compared to previous years, the impact and engagement levels were exceptional—proof that strategic programming adaptation meets evolving member needs effectively.

Financial Resilience in Challenging Times

2025 presented financial challenges with decreased event revenue across the industry. Yet AHMA of Washington remained financially strong and strategically focused on the future.

Through prudent fiscal management and strategic deployment of our Operating Reserve, we invested in innovative initiatives designed to deliver long-term value to members—including the groundbreaking Speaker Academy and the AHMA Industry Directory.

We maintained full operational capacity throughout the year, ensuring uninterrupted member services, continued professional support, and the agility to seize emerging opportunities. This financial stewardship reflects our disciplined planning and unwavering commitment to organizational sustainability.

Our Competitive Strengths

Exceptional Retention

90% renewal rate demonstrates sustained member value and satisfaction

Strategic Innovation

New programs like Speaker Academy position us for long-term leadership

Educational Excellence

High-quality, relevant training addressing real operational challenges

Financial Discipline

Prudent management ensuring stability and strategic investment capacity

Looking Forward: Stability Meets Innovation

"In a year where many organizations faced uncertainty, AHMA of Washington proved that strong leadership, engaged membership, and sound management can sustain and even strengthen an association's impact."

Through unwavering commitment to excellence, strategic adaptability, and relentless focus on member value, AHMA of Washington remains a model of stability and innovation within the affordable housing industry.

As we move into 2026, we do so with confidence—backed by a loyal membership base, proven educational programs, financial resilience, and the innovative spirit needed to lead Washington's affordable housing professionals into the future.
